

General Facts for Catholic Graduate Programs The Newman Guide

Graduate program full name:
Divisions (if applicable):
Main Phone:
Address:
Primary Website:
Year Founded:
Social Media Account URLs:
Program president/director name:

Primary contact for The Newman Guide at your graduate program:
Email address:
Phone number:

Total cost of full time, graduate tuition for one year:
Total cost per course:
Total cost of room and board (if applicable):

Number of graduate students:
Number of graduate students taking classes primarily in-person:
Number of graduate students taking classes primarily online:

Percent of graduate students who reside on campus:
Percent of graduate students who are Catholic:
Percent of faculty members who are Catholic:
Percent of institution's Trustees who are Catholic:

Number of and religious orders of faculty and staff who are priests, or religious brothers or sisters:

Do you currently ask applicants if they used The Newman Guide in their college search?
(Yes or No.)

If not, please add to application form to be eligible for Newman Guide recognition.

Graduate program student body make-up regarding --
Sex (male/female):
Number of states represented:

Top three states:

Percentage from Catholic college:

Percentage from Newman Guide college:

Percentages that are American Indian/Native Alaskan, Black, White, Asian/Pacific Islander, Hispanic/Latino:

List the graduate programs offered:

List any concentrations available:

List any graduate certificates offered:

Number of credits required for graduate degree:

Percent of graduate credits from core curriculum courses (mandatory or distribution):

Number of credits in Catholic theology required for all graduate students:

Number of credits in philosophy required for all graduate students:

List all accreditations:

List notable rankings and recognitions:

List all recognized student clubs and activities:

List athletic sports or training offered (identify as male or female; team or class; varsity, junior varsity, club, or intramural – and identify athletic association level and conference affiliation, if applicable):